

RANDY ROGERS' SONGWRITING TALENTS EMBRACED BY ONE OF COUNTRY MUSIC'S BIGGEST STARS!

ROGERS TUNE MAKES THE CUT ON KENNY CHESNEY'S
NEW RECORD-SLATED FOR RELEASE ON NOVEMBER 8TH!

For immediate release: Contact Brandy Reed (615) 673-0150

Nashville, TN-October 26, 2005-When CMA and ACM's entertainer of the Year, Kenny Chesney, was looking for material for his new studio release he happened upon a record called RollerCoaster from one of the hottest new country bands around...the Randy Rogers Band, that is. Word has it that Chesney immediately fell in love with the record seeing it as a country music treasure chest full of gems for the taking. His pick was "Somebody Take Me Home," which appears on The Road And The Radio, Chesney's first studio offering in 17 months, slated for release on November 8th!

"Somebody Take Me Home," (co-written with RRB producer Radney Foster) is an honest interpretation of emotional break ups that leave you feeling like you live in your own personal haunted house with your heart a vulnerable target for ghosts that don't intend to leave anytime soon. So much the stuff of great songs, and Rogers has those in spades spanning across three stellar record releases (Like It Used To Be, RollerCoaster, Live At Billy Bob's). Rogers notes, "My whole entire life I have wanted to be a song writer. I think the ultimate compliment an artist can receive is when another artist records their song." Compliments on Rogers' songwriting talents are also shared by Cody Canada, lead man for mega touring giants, Cross Canadian Ragweed. Rogers and Canada co-wrote "This Time Around," which is featured on Ragweed's brand new record, GARAGE, release on October 4th, 2005.

The cut on Chesney's new record is a star-studded addition to the myriad of accomplishments the band has met head on this year. Things are far from slowing down. In between a never ending tour that comprises 250 plus dates a year, the release of a smash record, and a publishing deal with Nashville based Big Tractor Music, the band is currently spending their off time at Cedar Creek recording studios in Austin laying down tracks for their major label debut on Mercury Records. The new record is slated for release in 2006! Visit www.randyrogersband.com for more information on upcoming releases, bio information, and tour dates.

For review copies, interviews, or more information contact RPR Media.

#